NATIONAL GUARD COMPANY WILL BE ORGANIZED HERE

Captain Chapman Will Muster
in June 1, According to Adjutant General's Order.

Fifty-four Have Signed Muster Roll Already.

DR. J. V. VORIS FOR CAPTAIN

Protection for Paducah in case of any trouble that may arise is adequately provided by the company of state guards that will be mustered in here June 1. Dr. J. Victor Voris has received an order from the adjutant general's office that the application of the Paducah company has been accepted and the 54 men will soon be seen in khaki with big Colts army pistols on their hips. The order follows:

"Adjutant General's Office, Frankfort, Ky.

"Special Order No. 68.

"J. V. Voris and fifty-two other citizens of McCracken county having filed application for the organization of a company of infantry to be attached to the Kentucky state guard—the same being approved by the county judge of McCracken county, Captain A. G. Chapman, Third Infantry, K. S. G., is hereby designated as the mustering officer and directed to proceed to Paducah on Monday, June 1, 1908, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and muster said applicants into the state guard as required by law. After mustering said applicants into the service Captain Chapman will hold an election for the officers of the company, reporting the result to this department.

"By command of the governor,
"P. P. JOHNSTON,
"Adjutant General."

In the election of officers, specified in the order, Dr. Voris probably will be elected captain and Percy Jordan first lieutenant. The names of the young men in the company will be given out after they are mustered in. Drilling will begin immediately after organization and the boys will be ready for any call.

THAW'S MOTHER GAINS WHIP HAND IN HIS AFFAIRS

New York, May 27.—With the withdrawal of Evelyn's suit for the annulment of her marriage to Harry Thaw it is understood that Mrs. William Thaw has gained the whip hand in Thaw's affairs. It is expected his mother will seek the appointment as Harry's guardian and ask for a transfer to some other institution from Mattewan. The family thought it poor policy for Evelyn to be seeking annulment on the ground of insanity, while Thaw was fighting for his liberty, and induced her to withdraw her suit.

FLAGS FOR SCHOOLS

Since Mayor Smith says the national flag will be raised on all the public buildings flag day, June 14, Trustee C. G. Kelly, secretary of the school board, has suggested that a subscription be taken up so that the flags may wave from the school buildings. Trustee Kelly wanted the flags purchased last summer, but the board was financially embarrassed, and the prospects are no better. There are nine school buildings, and if purchased in a lot Secretary Kelly can get a price of $108 for flags that retail at $20 each. Here is a good chance for a public spirited citizen to donate a flag, or add to a subscription that will be raised to place "Old Glory" on the school buildings. Any sum one may give will help towards getting the flags.

—M. N. Clark, of Goebel avenue, an employe of the Paducah Marine Ways company, cut through his shoe and deep into his left foot with an adz yesterday.

New York, May 27.—The Tammany society elected Daniel F. Cohalan to be the new grand sachem of the order, to succeed W. Bourke Cockran, whose elimination from the organization was ordered three months ago by Charles F. Murphy. Next to J. Sergeant Cram, Mr. Cohalan is nearer to Mr. Murphy than any one in Tammany hall.

SEN. CAMPBELL HERE

State Senator Wheeler Campbell returned from Louisville last night and today he confirmed the report from Louisville that he would form a partnership with Bernard Flexner, a Louisville attorney. Senator Campbell will move his family to Louisville but will not be able himself to leave until probably the middle of June. He stated he would retain his citizenship in Paducah until he was satisfied he would be pleased with his new location. Should a special session of the general assembly be called by Governor Wilson, Senator Campbell would represent this district. If he is not pleased with Louisville in two or three years, Senator Campbell said he will move back to Paducah. The style of the firm will be Flexner & Campbell. Both are prominent young attorneys and success is assured for them.

DESPERADOES HELD.

Special Term of Court to Try Slayers of Hungarian Family.

Lexington, Ky., May 27.—A special term of the Pike county circuit court was called at Pikeville to investigate the attack by five white and one negro mountain desperadoes on a Hungarian family last week, in which two of the Hungarians were killed and three others, including two children, were perhaps fatally wounded. The men charged with the crime are Legburn and Samuel Followay, Galvin Green, Samuel and Sherman Clay, and a negro whose name is unknown.

They went to take possession of the Hungarians' home, and when the latter remonstrated the desperadoes opened a fusillade of shots. The mother and father were killed, the former being scalped in Indian fashion. Five of the men were arrested after a chase, but one is still at large. The feeling is high against the gang.

CITY APPEALS TAX CASE TO COURT OF APPEALS.

Judge Reed held a brief session of circuit court this morning and an appeal was granted to the city from the judgment for back taxes on the city wharf, market and cemetery. LUCKY DOGS ARE FREE

The dog catchers had to do part of their work over today, as about 30 dogs escaped from the wagon last night. The wagon was filled with puppies, and the men did not take them to the pen because it was late. It is supposed that some owner of a dog opened the door to free his pet, and by his kindness allowed all of the dogs to be free. The catchers are not having much trouble of getting dogs, for there are probably 3,000 dogs in the city and not one-third have the license paid. City Clerk Maurice McIntyre is still busy today issuing licenses for the puppies.

TWO MEN DROWNED BY OVERTURNING OF THEIR SKIFF

James Barnes, formerly of this city, and Charles Lipscomb were drowned this morning at Caseyville. They were crossing the river in a skiff loaded with furniture, when the skiff overturned. Their bodies went under some barges and have not been recovered. Barnes was about 30 years old and married.

The real estate is valued at $12,000 and the buildings placed at $5,000. The appraisers were: W. L. Bower, George O. Ingram and C. E. Jennings.

Ballot Boxes of New York Mayorality Election to Be Opened.
New York, May 27.—The boxes containing the ballots cast in the McClellan-Hearst mayorality contest nearly three years ago which have been the object of contention and litigation since election day are to be opened. This was decided by Justice Lambert in the supreme court.

Two subpoenas directing W. R. Hearst to appear before the court which is hearing the recount were issued at the request of counsel for Mayor McClellan. The attorney said the action was taken in view of Mr. Hearst's announcement that he intends to sail for Europe tomorrow.

JUMPS OFF TRAIN WHEN PASSENGER HE ROBBED AWAKES

This is Allegation Against Charles Lowe Found by
I. C. Tracks.

Was on Train From Louisville and Left Hat and Baggage

HE SAYS HE WAS PUSHED OFF

Held as a suspect, Charles Lowe, colored, 30 years old, and who says his home is in Mayfield, is in the city jail, while the police are investigating the robbery of an unknown man on the Louisville-Memphis train this morning about 4 o'clock. The man was robbed of $35 and a $15 watch fob. The conductor and flagman were after the thief so hot that he jumped off the train and left his suit case and hat in the white coach. Lowe was found this morning by Patillo Kirk, detective for the Illinois Central railroad, lying beside the railroad track near the Island creek bridge with a big wound on his scalp. Lowe identified his hat and told what articles were in the suit case, although his story is that he was pushed off the train.

Lowe has curly hair and is of a light yellow color. According to passengers on the train, Lowe got on the train at Louisville and told them he had been traveling for a day, coming from West Virginia. While the passengers were asleep, it is alleged, Lowe went through the pockets of the passenger and took the $35 and when he pulled out the fob the passenger awoke. The crew started after the thief and he jumped from the train near Island creek bridge. His suit case and a light Stetson hat were left at the Union station. Patrolmen Bryant and Roush made a thorough search but could not find the man. Patrolman Casper Jones took up the search this morning and opened the suit case, which contained some cut glass, a suit of clothes and shirts. Collars had the laundry mark of "Orr" and a white vest bore the name of "W. Carson." Most of the goods were purchased in Mayfield, according to labels.

Lowe was picked up this morning by the side of the railroad track and he was asleep. He had a severe scalp wound on the top of his head and other smaller cuts were on his face. Lowe said his home is in Mayfield, and that he was en route home to visit his mother from Clarksville, Tenn., where he worked in a tobacco factory. He asserted he was drunk and said he was pushed off the train when near Paducah. To a reporter for The Sun he described several articles that were in the suit case. No money was found on Lowe.

The police will hold Lowe until the train officials return from Memphis.

ROCKEFELLER BELIEVES A WOMAN'S PLACE IS HOME.

New York, May 27.—John D. Rockefeller in an interview declared a woman's place is in the home. "It is made for her. I believe it is largely women's own fault if they work," he said. "There may be exceptional cases, but most women can be home keepers rather than bread winners if they make up their minds early enough. That doesn't mean women are not eminently equipped for business, but they are happier as mothers and home keepers." Rockefeller declared he had carried mortar and bricks to the very top of his home when it was being constructed and he called himself a "hardy son of toil."

PURVEYORS SUE ROYAL HOUSE.

Lisbon Tradespeople Insistent on Payments by Reigning Family.

Lisbon, May 27.—The royal household of Portugal is being besieged by its creditors and the newspapers of Lisbon are filled with notices of suits brought by trades people against its members. The courts already have awarded a butcher $210 and costs, the amount of an unpaid meat bill against Dowager Queen Maria Pia and the Duke of Oporto.

This situation arises from the fact that the members of the royal household have not received a single penny from the state since King Carlos and his son were assassinated on the streets of this city nearly four months ago, because the new civil list cannot be approved until after the financial accounting of the reign of the late King Carlos is completed. This is held up by threatened revelations from Senator Carvalho, who was minister of finance under ex-President Franco, regarding moneys which went to members of the present government.

TOBACCO PLANTS INDICATE BUMPER CROP THIS YEAR

All Conditions Favorable For Fourth or Third Larger Yield.

Bigger Acreage Going in West of Tennessee.

EARLY PLANTING PROMISING

History will repeat itself in the "Black Patch" this year, from information about tobacco planting, that is irrefutable. Several factors combine to induce a large crop for this year, but the leading one is the high price the weed has brought in the last two seasons. It has, ever been the case in the tobacco industry, that one or more good years invariably bring out a bumper crop, but many competent judges thought that the troubles in the black patch would curtail planting.

Marshall county already has planted an average crop and the farmers have not finished planting. Reports from Carlisle, Ballard and other counties, from reliable sources, state that from one-fourth to one-third more tobacco is being planted this year than last. Farmers who stopped raising tobacco after the disastrous crop in 1903 when the price paid was 4 cents, are planting heavily this year, and other farmers, both in and out of any of the organizations, are increasing their acreage.

Backing up the inducement of the high prices, confidence in the intention of the state authorities to preserve the rights and liberties of all citizens, is a strong factor in the situation. Tobacco men who have traveled over western Kentucky say that careful inquiries confirm the rumors of increased acreage. They have made trips especially to secure information on which to base their opinions.

Italian Contract.
W. G. Dunnington, of Farmville, Va., who has the entire Italian purchasing contract, under Mr. Joseph Ferigo, of No. 1, Broadway, New York, was in the city yesterday on a trip of inspection over the "black patch." His local representatives are T. J. Stahl & company, Tenth and Madison streets, Mr. Dunnington and other foreign government buyers who are constantly in touch with the situation, believe that next year's crop will be larger than any crop in several seasons.

Indications are that the whole crop will be bought up this year, as it was last year, and this will be another inducement for farmers to increase their planting. Interest among tobacco men everywhere is now centered in the prospects for next year and a distinctly optimistic feeling is evident in many quarters.

FEAST OF SONG IN THE HOUSE

Members Pass Time Waiting For a Quorum.

Floor Leaders of the House Perform Their Usual Denunciation Feat.

LITTLE BUSINESS ON TUESDAY

Washington, May 27.—The session of the senate dragged along in such an unimportant way that little effort was required on the part of the managers of the filibuster to occupy the time by dilatory tactics. The conferees on the currency bills met during the day and the senate merely kept in session in the hope that some thing might be done toward substantial progress in the work of closing up the opposition.

During the day a bill was passed amending the navigation laws in many minor respects and a resolution was considered calling for the names of former postmasters who served in 1864 to 1874 and who have been adjudged by the auditors entitled to additional compensation.

In the House. By unanimous consent the house passed a bill requiring the railroad companies by July 1, 1909, to equip the locomotives with ash pans which can be dumped or cleaned without the necessity of employees going under the locomotives.

During the long wait for a quorum in the house the members amused themselves by indulging in song. Strains of "Home, Sweet Home," "Way Down Upon the Swanee River," "My Old Kentucky Home," begun by some members on the Democratic side were caught up by others on both sides of the chamber and echoed through the building. The members after each selection liberally applauded themselves, while the occupants of the galleries enjoyed the novelty of the occasion.

The two floor leaders of the house again occupied the center of the stage and performed their usual feats of charging each other with the responsibility for conditions at present existing in that body. It came about through an order presented by Payne of New York, granting five days leave after adjournment in which to print in the congressional record remarks that might have been but were not made on the floor. He took occasion to arraign the Democrats for their filibuster and said that the Republicans had no apology to make for their course. Williams accused the majority of doing nothing at the present session, and opposed the order because it gave the members no opportunity to reply to statements which he felt in advance would call for an answer. The order was adopted.

Mayfield Tobacco Notes.
Mayfield, Ky., May 27.—There has been no sales made at the local sales-room of the Planters' Protective association since last week. The market has been dull all over the district.

Grader Tom Myles and Salesman West Humphries left Tuesday for Hopkinsville, where they will attend a meeting of the graders and salesmen of the dark tobacco district.

About 80 per cent of the new crop is estimated to now be on the hill. In some sections there is a report of considerable damage being done by grasshoppers and cutworms.

The pricing of the last year's crop is rapidly drawing to a close. Many of the association pricing houses have shut down and those who have not yet done so will soon follow suit. The work of the graders has in most cases been well performed and very little trouble is being met with in this regard.

An Eye to Business.

An expert golfer had the misfortune to play a particularly vigorous stroke at the moment that a seedy wayfarer skulked across the edge of the course. The ball struck the trespasser and rendered him briefly insensible. When he recovered, a five dollar bill was pressed into his hand by the regretful golfer.

"Thanky, sir," said the injured man after a kindling glance at the money. "An' when will you be playin', again, sir?"—June Lippincott's.

An Australian Cattle King.

Sidney Kidman, the American cattle king, is in London on his first visit to England. He probably owns more British territory than any other man. When fourteen he was earning $2.50 a week; today he owns or is interested in 49,216 square miles of country. Beginning life as a teamster, he has worked his way up until he is the largest horse dealer and cattle owner in Australia. He possesses 100,000 head of cattle and 10,000 horses. He has thirty-two cattle ranches and at his home in Kapunda, about fifty miles from Adelaide, take place the largest horse sales in the world.

Mr. Kidman, despite his prosperity, has not yet attained perfect happiness. He is not quite satisfied that his methods of cattle raising cannot be improved upon. He therefore proposes to pay a visit to the United States, where he will be eager to learn any lessons the cattle farmers can teach him. In his own words, he is "quite willing to study the American system by taking a job there at 15 shillings a week."—New York Sun.

THREE MEETINGS HELD YESTERDAY

By Senate and House Conferees
on Currency.

Tentative Agreement Reached at Third Upon Which Compromise
Will Be Based.

CANNON SAYS IT WILL PASS.

Washington, May 27.—The senate and house conferees on the currency bills held three meetings and at the third one, which did not adjourn until 6:30 o'clock reached a compromise agreement which the Republican members of the conference are to report at an adjourned meeting tomorrow forenoon. At the conclusion of the final meeting the probability of reporting a compromise bill seemed a certainty. Following are the main points of understanding that had been reached: The reserve provision in the Vreeland bill, calling for the retention of 25 per cent in central reserve cities and 15 per cent in other reserve cities, is reduced to a straight ten per cent reserve without reference to classification of cities.

Higher rating is given to state and municipal heads than to other securities upon which an emergency currency may be taken out of banks.

The amount of circulation issuable upon a commercial paper basis is limited to forty per cent of the capital of the applicant bank, instead of 100 per cent as provided in the Vreeland bill.

The redemption fund requirement of five per cent under the present law is increased to ten per cent for all emergency currency taken out. Total amount of emergency currency issuable is confined within a maximum of $500,000,000 as provided by the Aldrich bill.

A time limit of three years is placed upon the life of the bill.

If the bill is reported out of the conference tomorrow it will be passed by the house.

Intimates of Speaker Cannon asserted today that in the event that a bill along the lines of the proposed compromise is brought in, it could be passed by the house after an hour's debate.

Conditions are so different in the senate that another situation may be encountered there. Still, today's developments have been such as to justify the statement that these bills will not be held up in the senate for so long a time as seemed probable when the compromise first began to receive attention.

Strenuous representation as to the possible effect on business of the failure of congress to enact legislation before adjournment has had the effect of causing several Democratic senators to agree not to discuss the bill at length in case it is reported.

LEGS DIPPED IN BOILING WATER BUT HE WAS SAVED.

While going to work this morning Arthur Swanson, 722 Kentucky avenue, had a narrow escape from a possible drowning in one of the cinder pits in the Illinois Central yards. Swanson works in the machine department, and was walking along by one of the pits when he stumbled and was sliding into the water. He had gone into the water to his knees, but by a lucky reach, Swanson seized a tie and held himself up until pulled out. The water in the ash pits is about ten feet deep and is usually boiling from the hot ashes dropped into it. The water was hot this morning, but Swanson's legs were not scalded too badly to prevent his working. Had Swanson fallen into the pit it would have been difficult to have raised him out.

This morning in police court for the disturbance Turpin pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

"The greatest gain in any life is the loss of greed."

A CANDIDATE WITH A RECORD.

The Louisville Times, always humorous, but seldom sound, said editorially of Bryan's telegram to Taft was answered:

"Mr. Bryan, we know, is rightly to be credited with a sincere desire for publicity in campaign funds. Mr. Bryan, doubtless, recognized that there was nothing to be gained from an appeal to Mr. Roosevelt. By the reductio ad absurdum method of reasoning, there was nothing left him but an appeal to Taft. It is not comprehensible that Mr. Bryan has any hope that success will follow the appeal. He has discharged his responsibility in making it. The fault is not his that there is only a dummy figure to which to make it."

It must have shocked Mr. Bryan mightily to learn that Judge Taft had already urged his friends in congress to support the bill, giving publicity to campaign contributions, and had not said anything about it. It never occurred to Judge Taft that he should make campaign capital of his position in the matter; it never occurred to Mr. Bryan that he should not.

Mr. Bryan is honest, and we believe, often sincere; but his opinions have been his stock in trade since he left college, and his virtue is highly commercialized.

Mr. Taft is running for president on his achievements and his positive connection with certain policies of state, which it will be his purpose to carry out to their completion, and he assumes patriotic motives and chooses the right as a matter of course, as a good citizen should. Mr. Bryan is running for president—that is all. We know he leans to virtue's side; because he tells us so. What ever plank he puts in his platform, he turns the moral side upward. He broke into public life, representing a radical "issue." He found corruption in public places—on the other side—and he decried them; though he could afford to come into Kentucky and urge Kentuckians to swallow a nasty mess of it. He got beat, but he secured a following. He is selling the Commoner to that following and lecturing to it. He saw an opportunity to put the congress in bad, and to embarrass his prospective opponent for president by making him appear to be dilatory in urging reform, but, acknowledging the righteousness of the Democratic standard bearer's position.

Alas, alas! Taft had already urged that reform on his friends, but had marked the letters private, and neglected to give copies to the papers. Maybe, Bryan's premature expression may impel congress to act, and then he will have to endorse the congress for doing what he urged.

We doubt if Bryan heeds this lesson. Men like Taft are a poor kind with which to play politics. If Roosevelt is pugnaciously honest, Taft is rigidly so. Boss Cox, of Cincinnati, found him so, when Taft dined with him and the whole outfit in Ohio. Foraker found Taft so, when Foraker lost every county in the state in a contest with Taft.

Mr. Bryan can rummage around

Washington and dig up some more campaign material for Taft. That is what everybody has done for him, that has tried. Politicians have it, that a man with a record makes a bad candidate; but that is because they have been too long experimenting with men, whose records are bad.

IT IS MARVO-LOUS.

It is none of our business, of course, but we should like to know where all the money comes from. First, we see prominent attorneys called to Murray to defend indigent prisoners charged with night riding, and the prisoners are as much surprised as any of us to learn of the lawyers' appearance in the case. Then we find fellows, who had laid in jail for weeks at Eddyville for lack of bail, arrested again for night riding, and, behold! Some fortuitous circumstance throws in their way a mysterious friend, who furnishes bond to make them free men, pending their trial, and this in spite of the fact that their characters have not improved in the meantime. Here we have it again in civil proceedings. Twenty-eight men, eighteen of them propertyless and ten with their property encumbered, men who William Yost, their attorney, said couldn't raise $12,000 among them, walk into Princeton with $15,000 in cash to settle three cases against them for night riding, and accept responsibility for the hefty end of the costs.

It is mar-vo-lous, as Dr. Watson would say.

POWER OF THE PRESS.

"The Hopkinsville New Era has a good word to say of Capt. Albrecht and his troopers who have been riding after the night riders. The general opinion, however, among the rural roosters is that they are aggravating nuisances." — Kentucky State Journal.

They are not "aggravating nuisances" to anyone but a night rider. By the way, we observe that since the Kentucky State Journal has taken a stand with the Murray Ledger against law and order, outrages in the vicinity of the state capital have multiplied and one night rider has been shot while on a raid. That shows that the State Journal is not without influence in its own community, and, knowing this, Editor Walton should condemn, rather than encourage lawlessness.

IN JAPAN.

Heigh-ho! Japanese commercial interests have protested to the government against excessive expenditures for the army and navy and the government is considering the protest.

Farewell, Cherry Blossom. Samurai, to the archives! The mysteries of double entry book keeping will now take the place of the sword drill, and gentlemen of Japan, whose ancestors disemboweled themselves for honor's sake, will learn how to corner the herring market and sell decayed vegetables to the government on which to feed its soldiers. It remains only for the mikado to be cartooned and affectionately called "Mike." Then the little brown men will be truly civilized.

Now that the fight is on for nominations for county offices, we hope no night rider ticket is being put surreptitiously in the field. We have observed that political ascendancy has been one of the first steps to night rider domination of the Black Patch counties.

We entertain no doubt that Commonwealth's Attorney Grayot and County Attorney Baker, of Caldwell county, will proceed vigorously now to prosecute the night riders around Princeton and Lamasco.

Take down your front fence and get into the contest for the most beautiful yard.

VANDERBILT CUP RACE.

American Association Takes Steps to Control Whole Field.

New York, May 28.—That there will be an automobile race for the Vanderbilt cup held this year was authoritatively announced here today. This decision was made at the meeting of the racing board of the American Automobile association, which constitutes the Vanderbilt cup commission and which also took radical action looking to control by the American Automobile association of the entire automobile racing field of the United States. The gauntlet was thrown down to the Automobile Club of America, which it had been stated was contemplating holding a rival international race.

ROBERT FERGUSON GETS RUN OVER BY A WAGON.

Robert Ferguson, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Ferguson, of Fountain avenue, was run over by a light delivery wagon this morning at the corner of Jefferson street and Fountain avenue. The lad was riding home and in jumping off he fell between the wheels and the rear wheel ran over his chest, knocking the breath out of him and slightly bruising him. A physician was called, but before he arrived the young man was ready to play.

Afternoon Tea.

Mrs. Vernon Blythe will entertain Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock with a tea in honor of her visitors, Miss Anne Rhea, of Nashville, Tenn., and Mrs. John Dillon, of Hickman, at her home, 305 North Seventh street. It will be an informal affair for the younger society set.

THE VANISHING FLEETS

By ROY NORTON

ILLUSTRATED BY A. WEIL

In his anxiety he was on the verge of rushing out and trusting to any convenient pretext, when a boy came hurrying past him, whistling as he went and homeward bound. Here was the spy's opportunity, and he accepted it. He hailed the lad, and in pigeon English told him he wanted to get aboard the vessel if he could.

"Well, you can't do it," came the response. "If you wanted to get on, why didn't you run after the ship instead of stopping me?"

"Where she go?" queried Seigo.

"Oh, you want to know where she's going now, do you, Mr. Chink. Well, a fellow on the dock said she was going to Guantanamo, and that means you couldn't go on her if you wanted to."

Then with a derisive laugh he took up the strain of his melody at exactly the same place he had left off when accosted, thrust his hands into his pockets and continued his way.

Seigo was elated. That accounted for it, then! The United States was playing some crafty game, using its Cuban naval station as a base; was conducting some experiment or outfitting some strange expedition with necessities that could not be obtained in the big island to the south. The only perturbing thought was that the navy, instead of being inactive, had some secret task on hand which had been taken away from home stations. He decided he must return to Washington with this single strand of information and there endeavor to secure others. He watched the lights of the ship grow dim, and then as furtively as he had come returned to the home of the laundryman.

The latter counted his pay and wondered why his guest departed for the north on the early train of that morning. Seigo offered no explanations for his erratic action, and as he traveled to Washington he was in a gleeful mood.

In due time he arrived, and once more ensconced himself in his headquarters, hoping within a few days to gain more complete knowledge. He was handicapped in his quest, however, because he had no actual means of access to government circles where such data as he wished might best be obtained. But again accident favored him, and again it was in the night when he sallied forth.

The hour was late when Meredith brought him word that several visitors had called upon the president, and, not trusting to others a mission so important, he took upon himself the task of spying upon the great white building where the ruler of the country lived. From the darkness of his alleyway he emerged into a broader street, when an automobile went chugging past him, and then, just as it came beneath the rays of an arc light, a face leaned to the window, an arm was extended evidently for the purpose of shaking the ash from a cigar, and Seigo shrank back. In the shivering white rays he recognized as one of the passengers in the machine no less a personage than the president, and with him was another man whom he believed to be the secretary of war.

From down the road came the sound of another motor, which in turn whizzed rapidly along, taking the same direction as the previous car. Seigo was not certain, but conjectured that within it were other officials, and, being a man of action, unhesitatingly flashed after it, neared the closed tonneau, and after a breathless run succeeded in swinging himself to the springs behind, maintaining his place by clutching the overhang of the fenders.

Away through the outskirts he rode, bearing nothing from within and in constant danger of falling off his precarious perch. The car gained speed until his peril was great, for to be thrown would be to receive certain injury. His fingers were strained convulsively in their effort to hold on, and once he was almost cast off by a sharp declivity in the road. Now he could only trust to chance that the automobile on which he rode was following that of the president; but as mile after mile was reeled off without a sight of the other machine on either hand, he felt assured that the party was all one. He leaned out across one of the great rubber tires and peered ahead to where now and then he could catch the glow of a red back lamp, and was content. His journey was not without discomfort, as the dust of the road whirled upward and into his nostrils in stifling volume, until he was begrimed and almost strangled; but he clung on grimly, waiting for the mysterious trip to end.

The big car stopped so suddenly that he had scant time to loosen his hold, fall off into the dirt and roll hastily into a ditch by the roadside where he might be hidden from sight. To his surprise the vehicle turned through a gateway into a field, where he heard the slow crunching of the great wheels over the stubble. He raised himself to his knees, and then in a crouching posture essayed to follow it in its wanderings, when he was arrested by a sharp challenge, betraying the fact that although the visitors had been expected no chance was being taken of entertaining others. Again he threw himself on his face, waiting patiently for other sounds. The great flat before him showed dimly in its yellow baroness, stretching down to where the broad expanse of river gleamed dully, and he could discern other lights than those of the motor on which he had been an undiscovered passenger. These suddenly vanished, and he surmised that the chauffeurs had extinguished them preparatory to leaving the cars. He could trace out no other shapes in the gloom. Not even a building raised its dark bulk in the night. He felt the necessity of advancing farther.

Foot by foot he wriggled forward, the splinters of the field imbedding themselves in his flesh unheeded, straining every nerve to avoid making a noise, and listening at intervals in the hope of catching some word of conversation which might give him a clew to the cause of this nocturnal mission. From a short distance ahead came the mutterings of low-pitched voices, and then a period of silence. He was past the machines now, still crawling carefully. Once more he paused, when he heard a sudden muffled crash from the direction of the water, and in an agony of surprise and terror rose to his knees, forgetting that he might be observed. His hands interlocked themselves in stress as he watched in breathless suspense for a moment, and then, almost moaning in despair, he crept rapidly back to the road, went cautiously down it for a hundred yards, and took madly to his heels with fright.

All caution was thrown aside, and as he ran like an insane man through the night, with his overworked lungs bellowing in and out until they felt aflame, he burst into sobs, muttering to himself again and again: "Only the gods can save Nippon! The gods help Nippon!"

LEGISLATURE ADJOURNS.

Governor of Oklahoma Approves the Excise Tax Bill.

Guthrie, Okla., May 27.—The Oklahoma legislature adjourned sine die at midnight last night. Governor Haskell sent in a message approving the excise tax bill, unheeding Attorney General West's warning that courts will declare it unconstitutional.

Haskell says the bill will increase the state's revenues $700,000, of which the oil and gas companies will pay $470,000.

Governor Haskell also signed the following bills: Placing a tax on all incomes of more than $3,500 annually and a graduated tax on all land holdings of more than 640 acres; providing an inheritance tax; prohibiting overcharges by agents of railroad, express, telephone and telegraph; providing for nomination of presidential electors by primaries; prohibiting the sale of mineral lands prior to 1915; and for jury trials for supreme court contempt cases.

New York, May 27.—Mrs. Hetty Green gave a dinner at the Hotel Plaza for sixteen persons, paying $20 a plate for each guest. The floral decorations cost $50 more, while the music and fees to not only the waiters but a battery of bell boys who guarded the entrance to the private dining hall, cost another $50.

Mrs. Green planned the dinner some ten days ago and requested that all mention of it be kept a secret. Mrs. Green and her daughter, Sylvia, received the sixteen guests at the entrance of the state apartment on the second floor of the Plaza.

The dinner for appointment and quality has never been surpassed by any given at the Plaza.

It is said Mrs. Green has planned a series of dinners that she will give during the next two months.

CLARKSVILLE ON GRILL

Clarksville, Tenn., May 27.—The Dark Tobacco Growers' association held their regular meeting here yesterday. District reports showed that about sixty per cent of the tobacco crop had been planted. Cutworms and bugs are said to be doing much damage to the small plants.

Recently the Rev. Ed Webb, of Clarksville, made an inflammatory speech against Clarksville and it was claimed he came here at the instance of Chairman Polk Prince. Chairman Prince denied that he had anything to do with the coming of Mr. Webb and said he was simply invited to speak out of courtesy. Chairman Prince said that he thought it right that a representative of the city should make an explanation. This was objected to by some members present. W. A. McFall said that he believed representatives of the city should be heard, but before they could take the floor a motion for adjournment was heard and there was no meeting.

DAYLIGHT BANDITS IN GOTHAM.

Bank Employes Save Cash, but Are Wounded in Street Battle.

New York, May 27.—While Joseph Elder, bookkeeper, and Samuel Adelman, messenger of the Jefferson bank, were distributing cash among the bank's branch institutions this afternoon for early morning use they were set upon in front of 83 First street by a trio of footpads who tried to steal a bag containing $12,000 in cash that the men carried. The attempt was frustrated, but not until Adelman and Elder were seriously cut and stabbed.

Turning the corner in First street, Elder and Adelman were surprised by handfuls of red pepper being thrown in their faces. Screaming with pain and fright, they made a dash to get away, but the three men closed on them and one slashed at Adelman's hand that held the money bag. A terrific struggle followed, and the cries of the men brought a crowd.

The highwaymen put up a stiff fight, and Adelman got stabs in the face, eyes, neck, hands, body and arms. Elder was also severely cut, as were two policemen. Glen, one of the policemen, managed to get one of the thugs down and by a liberal clubbing to reduce him to submission. The other two broke away and escaped.

A. S. E. GETS MONEY

Cincinnati, May 27.—The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse company will advance $150,000 to the Pendleton county (Kentucky) branch of the American Society of Equity for the purpose of financing the 1907 barley crop of that county. The money will be advanced on the tobacco as soon as it is received in the Cincinnati warehouses, the tobacco being held as collateral for the loan. The crop is worth from 12 to 15 cents a pound, but the warehouse company has agreed to advance only 5 cents a pound in order to tide the growers over the present planting season, with its heavy calls for cash. About 30,000 hogheads will be shipped to Cincinnati commencing June 1.

Fourth Street Graveled.

Fourth street from the Husbands road to Elizabeth street is graveled and the citizens in that vicinity are happy. They have been trying for years to have the fill graveled and the last load of gravel was placed on this afternoon. The street is yet to be rolled. The street will be of advantage to the No. 2 fire station as often the company may answer an alarm quicker by passing over the street, and it is not as hard on the horses as the brick streets.

A King's Wit.

"Many witticisms fell daily from the lips of our late King," said a Portuguese Consul. "The KKing was, you know, a splendid shot. At a dinner the other inferior shooting of an English visitor was praised and some one said: 'And Lord Gadabout, you know, sends everything he shoots to the hospitals.' 'The King laughed, and taking the long black cigar from his lips he said: 'Naturally, since he never shoots anything but gamekeepers.'"

DR. TALKS OF FOOD.

Pres. of Board of Health.

"What shall I eat?" is the daily inquiry the physician is met with. I do not hesitate to say that in my judgment a large percentage of disease is caused by poorly selected and improperly prepared food. My personal experience with the fully-cooked food, known as Grape-Nuts, enables me to speak freely of its merits.

"From overwork, I suffered several years with malnutrition, palpitation of the heart and loss of sleep. Last summer I was led to experiment personally with the new food, which I used in conjunction with good rich cow's milk. In a short time after I commenced its use, the disagreeable symptoms disappeared, my heart's action became steady and normal, the functions of the stomach were properly carried out and I again slept as soundly and as well as in my youth."

"I look upon Grape-Nuts as a perfect food, and no one can gainsay but that it has a most prominent place in a rational, scientific system of feeding. Any one who uses this food will soon be convinced of the soundness of the principle upon which it is manufactured and may thereby know the facts as to its true worth." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

The Kentucky Cardinal

The first birds to announce the opening of a new day, summer after summer, were invariably our rare cardinals. When dawn trembled between dark and gray, and trees and birds were scarcely distinguishable, awakening calls fluted from the tree-tops. "Whoo-oo-oo!" the male begins very softly, very sleepily, very slowly, as if taking a long breath, stretching himself and wondering if it can possibly be time to wake up! A moment's silence and he tries it over again. "Whoo-oo-oo!" Two notes this time in sighing tones. Another rest (probably napping) and back he goes to the first note: "Whoo! Whoo!"—a trifle louder now, as if he were trying his voice and was hardly yet awake or his throat clear enough to sing. It is very like human folk begin the day, with a stretch and a yawn and a general

ISLAND CREEK CLAIMS VICTIM

Harvey Parks Drowns While Close to Bank.

Companions Unable to Aid Lad Whose Struggles to Float Exhausted Him.

WILL BE BURIED AT ELVA, KY.

Treacherous "step-offs" in Island creek caused the death by drowning yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, of Harvey Parks, 17 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Parks, 518 South Tennessee street. Parks was swimming in the river at the Illinois Central bridge, when weakness and uncalculated depths, over came his scanty knowledge of swimming, and he sank despite the efforts of his companions, Herbert Ogden and James Byrd, to save him.

Parks' body was recovered by his companions with the aid of other boys who were rowing nearby, by diving, and although every effort was made to revive him, life was extinct when he was brought to the surface. Coroner Eaker was notified and Parks' body was taken to the Guy Nance undertaking parlors in the city, where it was prepared for burial. Coroner Eaker held the inquest this morning.

Island creek, where Parks was drowned, is deep right up to the bank. Though a narrow river, it is filled with back water. Young Parks and Ogden paddled around near the railroad bridge, to cool off after a long tramp, while Byrd and another companion started off in a skiff. Ogden could swim, but Parks, though of magnificent physique, could do little more than keep afloat. Without warning Parks began to sink and his cries for help brought the boys in the skiff and Ogden to his rescue.

None of the boys was a match in strength for the drowning young man, and their efforts to help him were futile. Before they could devise more effective aid, Parks had sunk for the third time. Then they located his body with a pole, and managed to bring it to the bank.

Parks recently worked as a helper in the boiler shops of the Illinois Central railroad, and his father, Mr. James Parks, is in the carpentering department. He was a big, handsome young fellow, with a disposition that attracted many friends. Besides his father, he leaves a mother, three sisters and one brother. If his body will be taken to Elva for burial Thursday morning.

Following is the coroner's verdict: "We, the jury, find upon due investigation that the body now before us is that of Harvey L. Parks, this city; and that he came to his death by drowning accidentally in Island creek near the city on the 26th inst. John F. Nicholson, A. Z. Dickerson, B. W. Mockbee, Wm. Shill, A. S. Thompson, Guy Nance."

The investigation of the jury was held at Guy Nance's undertaking parlors. After the jury turned in their verdict the body was embalmed and this afternoon at 2 o'clock was removed to his home, 518 South Sixteenth street. The body will be taken over the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad tomorrow morning at 7:50 to Elva, Marshall county, and tomorrow afternoon the funeral and burial will take place.

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good," and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hoodwinked humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve tonic it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "noise," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Buy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equalled.

UNIFORM QUALITY

OF CEMENT GRAVEL ONLY ACCEPTABLE TO THE CITY.

S. B. Gholson Wins Contract by One Cent—Telephone Comes in Handy.

Time and distance were annihilated in the special meeting of the board of public works yesterday afternoon, to consider bids for next year's gravel supply. President Rudy, of the board, at the city hall, got telephone connection with Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, who was in a distant part of the city, and the business of the meeting was transacted as easily as when Mr. Katterjohn is sitting across the table from Mr. Rudy in the mayor's office. Mr. Louis Kolb, Jr., was out of the city.

After reading all the bids to Mr. Katterjohn, Mr. Rudy received his motion to award the contract to S. B. Gholson, of the Benton road, whose bid of 75 cents per cubic yard delivered south of Broadway, and 93 cents a cubic yard delivered anywhere in the city. The bidding was close, only one cent higher than Mr. Gholson's bid being asked by Mr. S. A. Fowler and Mr. Richard Bell, who bid 85 cents for anywhere in the city. J. T. Evetts wanted 90 cents a yard north of Broadway and $1 south of Broadway. J. E. Jones had a low bid but would not deliver north of Broadway. President Rudy stated that only cement gravel would be accepted and the board instructed the city street inspector to require a uniform quality.

A Smoker.

A Pittsburg millionaire said at a dinner: "I lunched with Sir Thomas Lipton at the Ghezirah palace in Cairo, just before he set out for his tea plantation in Ceylon, where the ex-Empress Eugenie was to visit him. When the coffee came on I opened my gold case and offered Sir Thomas a beautiful aromatic cigarette fresh from the factory down the street. "No, thank you," said he. "I am, with one possible exception, the biggest smoker in the world, but I never smoke cigars nor cigarettes." "What do you smoke?" said I. "Bacon," he answered."—New York Tribune.

HONORED

IS PROFESSOR SHREVE BY ELECTION TO SOCIETY.

Science Teacher of High School Member of National Geographic—School News.

Unsolicited and unknown to him, Prof. C. H. Shreve, of the science department of the High school, has been elected a member of the National Geographic society, of Washington. The society has for its object the gaining of the vast deserts in the west for agriculture, and gathers information about geology and geography. While in his last year at Harvard university Professor Shreve wrote articles on "Physical Geography," "Glaciers" and "Irrigation," and did much research work for the papers. The society took an interest in the papers, and elected him a member. Some of the best scientists in the world are members of the society and are officers. A list of 12345 1235 46123 is in it. A short time ago Professor Shreve was elected a member of the American Association for the Advancement of American Science. Professor Shreve gained admission to the society through the success of his studies in chophyll.

Supt. J. A. Carnegie made an address to the High school students this morning at opening exercise. Professor Carnegie asked the students to attend the baccalaureate sermon next Sunday evening at the Episcopal church.

Mr. Richard I. Scott, who has returned from a tour with the Louis James Company, will sing at the High school tomorrow morning. Miss Aline Bagby will play the violin Friday morning, at the opening exercises. This will be the last special exercises of the High school this semester, as examinations will begin next week.

Feathered Idleness.

Little Margie on her first visit to a farm was told to wander about the barn and search for eggs. Some time later the child returned almost in tears.

"Couldn't you find any eggs, dearie?" asked the mother.

"No," replied Margie wearily. "I think it's mean, too, 'cause lots of hens were standing around doing nothing."

Why Suffer?

If you suffer pain from any cause, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will relieve it—and leave no bad after-effects. That's the important thing. Neither do they create a habit. More often the attacks become less frequent, or disappear altogether. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have no other effect except to relieve pain and quiet nervous irritation.

"We are never without Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. My husband and son, aged 15, were always subject to sick headache until we began using these Pills, and they have broken them up entirely. Don't think they have had to use them for six months. I recommend them to every one. A few weeks ago I heard an old lady friend was sick. I went to see her. She was down with LaGrippe, and nearly crazy with awful backache. I gave her one of the Anti-Pain Pills and left another for her to take in a short time. They helped her right away, and she says she will never be without them again. Last winter my husband was taken with fluency on both sides, and I know he would have died if it hadn't been for the Pills. In less than half an hour he was sweating, and went to bed and slept."

OFFICES OPEN TOO LATE, PADUCAH LOSES MATCH.

Two couples called at the police station a few minutes after 5 o'clock and stated they wanted to be married. Captain Frank Marlan looked up in surprise and explained they must get a license from the county clerk first. Evidently the couples were from the country, as they did not know how to take it that the office was not open at 5 o'clock in the morning. They wanted to start on their honeymoon at 7:45 o'clock on the train going south. Both couples left the station and they did not leave their names, but said they would go to a wide-awake city to get the knot tied.

CRIME ON HIGH SEAS COMMITTED WHEN
CYGLADES WAS DRIVEN ON BAHAMASSurvivors of Crew and Passen-

Fraud.

New York, May 26.—The arrival of the Ward steamer Vigilantia at her dock in Brooklyn was marked by a scene unparalleled in recent years in this city. Detectives who had boarded the ship at Quarantine had rounded up twenty members of the crew and four passengers, including a woman and a young girl, of the shipwrecked Frankfort, ~~the~~ the forward deck (Special).—Governor Wilson (the pardoned) Mary Hollowell, of Caldwell county, indicted for scrapping plant beds of John E.
Hollowell. The governor said the indictment was not procured to stop night riding, but was in pursuance of a campaign of lawlessness and plant bed scrapping.
Mrs. Hollowell is plaintiff in the
at the mysterious proceedings, and it was not until it leaked out later that the board of marine underwriters has a grave suspicion that the Cyglades was deliberately driven on the rocks for the insurance money, when an explanation was found.

Dastard Crime of Seas.
Both crew and passengers were successfully spirited away by detectives acting for the lawyers representing the board of underwriters kept under cover until statements of all circumstances connected with the foundering of the vessel were taken.
The investigation will be continued tomorrow, and one of the lawyers said that the case would probably be heard soon in the federal courts of this city.

If the suspicion that the Cyglades was deliberately driven on a reef in the Bahamas two weeks ago during a heavy storm is well founded, it is one of the dastard crimes of the seas, and resulted in frightful suffering for both members of the crew and passengers, and almost resulted in the drowning of the woman passenger and her little sister and all hands in one of the life boats of the ship.

Struggle on Seas.
For five days the seven members of the crew and four passengers in the second boat were tossed about in the open boat in a driving storm, with but a scanty supply of water and practically no food. Every big wave encountered threatened to swamp the boats, day and night, the woman and child standing their watch as well as the men.

Half the occupants of the boat had to be kept continually at work keeping it afloat, while the remainder recuperated their strength to take their turn at bailing out. The first boat, with fifteen members of the crew fared a little better, but the lives of all were constantly in danger from the swamping of the life boats in the heavy seas encountered.

MEXICAN LOTTERY TICKETS.
Millions of Them Sold Every Year—
Misspent Persons as Vendors.

Nearly $100,000 is spent in Mexico
City every week in lottery tickets, and in the same period about $70,000
is paid back in premiums.

On the weeks immediately preceding the big drawings, the sale, of course, amounts to great sums, as,
for instance, when the $200,000
drawings are held, there are 20,000 tickets at $40 each sold on the streets, and practically every ticket is disposed of, most of them during the last two weeks before the drawing. But as a general proposition, on an average of $15,000 a day is spent by Mexico City people on the lotteries.

There are, as is well known, three companies operating under concessions from the government for the conduct of lotteries in Mexico City.

Many picturesque figures are included in the list of lottery vendors in Mexico, for all must be licensed.
Blind men and women, dogs, old men, cripples and deformed persons all seem attracted to the business of selling lottery tickets, for there is an inexplicable fascination about buying a ticket from a misshapen person, for there surely must be luck in it, and this feeling is played upon by the vendors.

There have been, from time to time, rumors of changes coming in the lottery business of Mexico, that this industry is going the way of the gambling houses, now entirely driven out of practically all cities of the republic, and one hears that the great new prizes are but the forerunners of the lotteries' last day, and their efforts to gather in what they may while they can. How much truth there is in this one cannot say, but it is reasonable to suppose that the lotteries will be ultimately suppressed.

ELECTIONS ARE NOW COMPLETEFight New Bishops of Methodist Episcopal Church.Consecrated Sunday Special Service Will Be Held—Expected Conference Will Adjourn Monday.

CONSECRATED NEXT SUNDAY.

Baltimore, May 27.—The Episcopal election of the Methodist Episcopal conference of 1908 is now a matter of history and when the announcement was made late last night of the selection of the eight and last bishop very many of the delegates heaved sighs of relief. The new bishops are:
Rev. W. F. Anderson, of New York.
Rev. J. L. Neulsen, of Berea, Ohio.
Rev. W. A. Quayle, of Chicago.
Rev. Charles W. Smith, of Pittsburg.

Rev. Dr. Wilson S. Lewis, of Sioux City, Iowa.
Rev. Edwin H. Hughes, of Greencastle, Ind.

Rev. Robert McIntyre, of Los Angeles, Cal.
Rev. Dr. Frank M. Bristol, of Washington, D. C.

The last named was the pastor, intimate friend and often, it is said, the adviser of the late President Mc-Kinley.

The bishops elected will be consecrated at a special service which will be held on Sunday afternoon at the Lyric.

The Episcopal election out of the way, the conference will now make an election of a missionary bishop for Mexico, secretary of the general publishing agents, thirteen editors, corresponding secretaries of various boards, trustees, a new commission on aggressive evangelism and a number of other officials.

The wind-up rush is about to begin and on Thursday the conference will begin to hold a regular afternoon business session. It is not improbable that on Friday and Saturday there will also be night sessions and the final adjournment will doubtless not be earlier than midnight Monday.

Dig in a New Hole.

Laporte, Ind., May 27.—As a result of a statement made to the authorities by Harold Chapman, a former employ of Mrs. Belle Guinness, men under the direction of Sheriff Smulzer will excavate in an unsuspected place.

Chapman says that he was instructed one day by Mrs. Guinness to build a wire fence around a certain part of the rear yard. Mrs. Guinness superintended the work and watched every move very carefully. At a certain point she wanted Chapman to make a crook in the fence, which he refused to do. There was considerable argument over the matter, but finally Chapman gave in and made the bend around the place where Mrs. Guinness said she had a favorite horse buried.

Mrs. Guinness had an accomplice in her tragedies. Victims were lured to her murder house by a man who posed as the brother of Mrs. Guinness and who traveled about the country duplicating men into going to the woman who wanted a husband, but to meet certain death when once they accepted her hospitality. The complicity of a confederate was proved by the arrival of Martin Gurholt, brother of Henry Gurholt, a victim of the charnel house in 1905.

"My brother was duped into going to Laporte," said Martin Gurholt,
"by a man who posed as a brother of Mrs. Guinness. He found my brother at work in North Dakota. He had undoubtedly answered one of the woman's letters and was sought out by the accomplice who so graphically pictured the delights of the Guinness country place that my brother fell a victim to his blandishments and came to Laporte."

"He wrote me soon after arriving at the Guinness home how pleased he was with the place and the woman.
The letter was written July 4, when he told of a ride in the country with Mrs. Guinness."

The night of July 4 is when Gur-holt went to his death. The neighbors remember seeing him on that day. The next day he was gone.

"I wrote a letter to Mrs. Guinness in December, 1906, asking for information of my brother. Mrs. Guinness replied that Henry Gurholt had left her home and had gone to Chicago to trade horses. With the passing of time we became reconciled to the belief that he had met with foul play in Chicago and we mourned him as dead. Now it is very clear to us he was murdered."

His aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.
Gurholt, of Scandinavia, Wis., are completely prostrated by the Gun-ness tragedy in which their boy was a victim, and it is hurrying them to their graves.

Jack—But do you think that hammock will hold both of us this summer?

Eva—It ought to, dear. It is called

A GOOD REASON.

Paducah People Can Tell You Why
It Is So.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure the cause of disease, and that is why the cures are always lasting. This remedy strengthens and tones up the kidneys, helping them to drive out of the body
the liquid poisons that cause backache, headache and distressing kidney and urinary complaints. Paducah people testify to permanent cures.

W. H. Smith, of 1012 South Fourth street, Paducah, Ky., says: "My back troubled me for some years and it would ache so intensely at times that I would have to go and lie down and then could not get up without help.
I tried plasters and everything that came to my notice that I thought would help me and though I did receive some benefit the trouble would return again in a short time as severe as ever. I finally noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and sent to Du-Bois Son & Co.'s drug store for a box.
I took them as directed and in about a week was able to go about my work as usual. The lameness in my back and shoulders disappeared and my kidneys began to perform their work in the proper way. Doan's Kidney Pills soon relieved me of all the trouble and I can cheerfully endorse them." (From a statement given in 1900.)

Cured to Stay Cured.
On February 18, 1907, Mr. Smith said: "I gave a statement in 1900 telling of the cure Doan's Kidney Pills effected, and after this long rest I take pleasure in again endorsing them to the public, for I do not believe they have an equal. They made a complete cure in my case, as I have not had an attack of my former complaint since."

TRIBUTE TO QUEEN'S MEMORY.

Empire Day in U. S. Marked By Message From King.

New York, May 26.—King Edward
through his private secretary, Lord Knollys, contributed a message of good will, and Mark Twain made a characteristic speech at a dinner given by the British Schools and Universities club at Delmonico's in honor of the late Queen Victoria's birthday, which since her death, has been celebrated throughout England's vast dominions as Empire Day.

Dr. Walter Eyre Lambert, president of the club, which is composed exclusively of English and American alumni of British universities and colleges, presided with Samuel L.
Clements, the guest of honor and the possessor of the Degree of Doctor of Literature, conferred upon him last year by the University of Oxford, at his right.

Dr. Lambert, after proposing the health of King Edward and President Roosevelt, which were received with the singing of the British national anthem and the "Star Spangled Banner," read a cablegram from Lord Knollys conveying a message of good will to the club on the part of the king. All present were then called upon to drink a silent toast to the memory of Queen Victoria and Dr. Clements was asked by Dr. Lambert to give expression to an American appreciation of the monarch who reigned for more than three score years over the British empire.

matism.

O. G. Higbee, Danville, Ill., writes, December 2, 1901: "About two years ago I was laid up for four months with rheumatism. I tried Ballard's Snow Liniment; one bottle cured me.
"I can cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from like affliction." 25c,

One hundred and three people have been nominated for the honors and the prizes in The Paducah Evening Sun's Great Popularity Contest, and most of them have given notice that the nomination was made with their full consent and that they were going after the prizes TO WIN.

There is still room for a few more people with determination, for a large percentage of those who have started will find troubles or excuses later that will cause their names to be dropped from the list and great gaping holes left to be filled by later and braver entries.

Determination is the whole story. It is easy for anyone to make a good start in a contest, but the man or woman who says to himself or herself that he or she is going all the way through with the game and will not be stopped by real or imaginary troubles—that person is going to reap the reward of nerve and stick-to-it-iveness.

And in this case the reward is extremely great for those who stay to the finish of the game. Seven hundred dollars for six weeks work—worth the effort, isn't it? At any rate there are nearly one hundred and three people who think it is.

Fourteen people started the subscription game yesterday. You know the same effort that you spend in getting ballots from the paper will put you much farther to the good if you spend it getting your friends to subscribe to The Sun through you. Fourteen people have more than a thousand votes now—and the contest is only three days old. Others have subscription ballots which they have not yet turned in. How many will have entered the contest before tomorrow's publication and how many will write their scores in four figures can only be conjectured.

As Many as You Like.

Remember that you can cast any number of the five-vote coupons published daily in The Sun now. It is possible to vote only one of the 500-vote coupons published last Saturday and the 50-vote coupons published Monday, but you may gather up as many of the five as you like and rush them in to advance your score. But it will hardly pay you, yourself, to bother with those little ballots. Let the children of the neighborhood gather them up for you while you are spending your time on subscriptions.

The contest man has known a number of candidates in the past who have lost big prizes simply because they spent too much time collecting and signing ballots that counted only one each and neglected to get the things that count by the thousand.

If you wish to start in the game, get last Saturday's paper and Monday's paper and clip the big coupons. They are good until the last of this week. Not after that.

Then call for the contest man and have him come and tell you all about how to win. His advice is impartial but you will find it of value no matter whether you have been in other contests or not.

Phone for the Contest Man.

There is an individual now connected with The Sun whose business it is to talk to interested parties and tell them all about the contest. That's what he is in Paducah for. That being the case, don't hesitate to come right down to the office and take as much of his time as you want. He will tell you everything about the contest you want to know, and answer any and all questions—regular contest encyclopedia. His office hours are midnight to midnight. If it is impossible for you to come to The Sun office phone for the contest man and he will come where you are.

Voting Limit.

Until May 29 no candidate will be allowed to cast more than 2,000 certified votes in any one day.

The Paducah Sun's Great Popularity Contest began with the official announcement on May 23 and will close on the great national holiday, July 4. That makes exactly six weeks.

There will be no extension of the time of the contest. When it's over it's over, and the happy, lucky ones will be lugging home deeds for real estate, orders for fine furniture, rare jewels and a bunch of other things.

Who Are Eligible?

Any white person, man or woman, of good character, residing in the territory covered by The Sun may become a candidate for the honors and the prizes in The Paducah Sun's Greatest Popularity Contest.

Duration—Awards.

The contest starts with today's announcement and will continue until July 4, at 9 p. m., at which time a committee of well-known and trustworthy citizens will be chosen to determine who are entitled to the prizes.

More Than $2,000 in Prizes.

Following is a description of the magnificent list of prizes offered for the winners in this contest together with the arrangement governing their distribution.

The candidate securing the highest number of votes, regardless of district, will be given The First Grand Prize, a $700 double building lot in Gregory Heights, Paducah's prettiest suburb.

The candidate securing the second highest number of votes, regardless of district, will be given The Second Grand Prize, a $400.00 two-carat, blue-white diamond, on display at Jo Wolf's jewelry store, 327 Broadway.

After the judges of the finish of the contest have awarded the Grand Prizes, the names of the two winners will be stricken from the list of contestants and the nine district prizes will be awarded as follows:

The three persons who lead their respective districts will be awarded a $300 piano, on display at W. T. Miller & Bros., 520 Broadway, a $150 suit of furniture, displayed at Garner Bros., 207-213 South Third, a $100 buggy and harness, displayed at Powell-Rogers, 129-131 North Third. The above three prizes will be given to the three district leaders in the order of the number of votes credited to them.

The three persons who receive the second highest number of votes in their respective districts will be awarded the following prizes in their order of rank—a $65 watch on display at Pollock's, 333 Broadway, a $50 lady's or man's watch at Nagel and Meyer's, corner Third and Broadway, a $50 Miller range, displayed at Hank Bros., 212 Broadway.

The right is reserved to alter these rules should necessity demand.

Districts.

The territory covered by The Sun has been divided for the purposes of this contest into three districts, as follows:

District 1 comprises all of the city of Paducah north of Broadway, including the north side of Broadway.

District 2 comprises all of the city of Paducah south of Broadway, including the south side of Broadway.

District 3 comprises all of the territory served by The Sun outside the limits of the city of Paducah.

The three persons receiving the third highest number of votes in their respective districts will be awarded the following prizes, a $37.50 refrigerator, displayed at Henneberger's, 427 Broadway, a $25 chair or other furniture from Rhodes-

Burford's, 112-116 North Fourth, a $25 lady's or man's watch on display at J. L. Wanner's, 311 Broadway.

In addition the management of The Sun will spend $100 in special prizes to be distributed to busy candidates during the progress of the contest, making a grand total of more than $2,000 in prizes, to be distributed gratis.

Table of Values.

Besides the coupons which are printed daily in The Sun and which are good for the number of votes printed on them if voted before the time limit stated, contestants may secure subscription votes according to the following schedule:

Contestants may secure subscriptions anywhere they wish. For instance a candidate in District 3 is entitled to turn in subscriptions from District 2 or District 1, and vice versa.

Home in County Jail.
Newport, Ky., May 27.—Campbell county owes him a home, declares Henry Wewer, once a prosperous merchant of this place, and he chooses the jail.

He today asked the court to commit him, his thirty days' sentence being suspended.

He became estranged from his wife, and prefers the cell in which Powers was confined here to anything else like a home he ever knew.

The Merry Widow.

A man whose wife was extremely jealous planned a pleasant surprise for her in the form of a trip to New York to see "The Merry Widow."

and wrote a friend in the city to let him know the earliest date for which he could secure seats. The next day when he was away from home the following telegram was delivered there, addressed to him, but opened by his wife:

"Nothing doing with the widow until the tenth. Will that suit you?"

Explanations were demanded.—June Lippincott's.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Riders Visit Madison.

Richmond, Ky., May 27.—All the young plants of Blju White were destroyed in the first night rider visit that Madison county has had. The usual bundle of switches and the warning sign "N. R." were found by the beds, but White prefers to think that enemies whose organization was personal and not industrial did the job.

Condemns Law and Order Leagues.

Murray, Ky., May 27.—The Hon. Joel B. Fort, of Robinson county, Tenn., one of the leaders of the Dark Tobacco Growers' association, spoke at the opera house. Mr. Fort was introduced by O. J. Jennings, editor of the Ledger.

Mr. Jennings declared himself for the farmers and for organized labor, whether it be right or wrong.

Mr. Fort spoke at length concerning the good of the association and the evil of trusts. He also heavily condemned "Law and Order Leagues" because of the secrecy of their operations. After his speech the books of the association were opened to receive the 1908 crop of tobacco. It is the general belief that practically all of this year's crop will be put in the association.

Storm's Strange Freak.

Pine Knot, Ky., May 27.—Details that come of an odd storm freak in Martin county almost stretch the credulity of the people in this section.

A telephone message was sent to Mr. Sterling and then brought here by a messenger relating that Rolling Fork creek in that county was lifted from its bed by a tornado and carried for half a mile before the wind let go.

The ribbon of water held in the air in its original form by the remarkable wind was then tossed, it is declared, onto a hill and flowed down to a valley forming a complete lake which is draining down through a river.

The torrent is said to be of such volume that its roaring is heard for miles, and stock have been drowned and several people almost caught in the rush of the transplanted waters.

Wind and rain accompanied by thunder and lightning have been extreme in this part of the state and many believe that Rolling Fork, which was one and a half miles long, and somewhat shallow was literally picked up by the wind and deposited in the Hall crevasses half a mile away.

The creek runs on top of a ridge, and it is argued that the wind could easily sweep under it and carry it downward to the next ledge some distance south.

Home in County Jail.

Newport, Ky., May 27.—Campbell county owes him a home, declares Henry Wewer, once a prosperous merchant of this place, and he chooses the jail.

He today asked the court to commit him, his thirty days' sentence being suspended.

He became estranged from his wife, and prefers the cell in which Powers was confined here to anything else like a home he ever knew.

Judge McAdoo Passes Away.

Fulton, Ky., May 27.—Judge John M. McAdoo, one of Fulton's most prominent citizens, is dead after a lingering illness. Judge McAdoo was seventy-seven years old at the time of his death. He moved to Fulton from Waverly, Tenn., during the fall of 1902. He was a man of much prominence, both in this city and at his old home in Humphreys county, Tenn.

where he was chairman of the county court for thirty years. When that office was abolished he was elected county judge, and served in that capacity about fifteen years. He was an old Confederate soldier and captain of his company during the war, being in Gen. Manny's brigade, Chatham's division. After commanding his company a short time, this able man was made adjutant general, serving under Gen. Jos. E. Johnson. He was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

Church Benefits by the Raid.

Hopkinsville, Ky., May 27.—It is an ill wind that blows nobody good, and as a result of night riders' raid upon this city, the congregation of the Methodist church has been presented with a handsome and valuable site for a new church at Ninth and Campbell streets. The site was occupied by a warehouse owned by John C. Latham, which was the first point of attack of the night riders, and which was destroyed completely. The warehouse covered an entire square, and Mr. Latham has offered to the Methodist church such portion of the lot as they desire upon which to build a new house of worship.

At a meeting of the board of stewards last night, it was decided without a dissenting voice, to accept the offer, and a church costing from $40,000 to $50,000 will be erected. The present church can be sold for a good price, and it is figured that half the necessary amount is in sight and the balance can be readily raised by subscription, and actual work is expected to be begun by fall.

Disgrace to the County.

Versailles, Ky., May 27.—Judge Robert L. Stout, in charging the grand jury of Woodford county here yesterday to thoroughly investigate the burning of the tobacco barns of George C. Grady and the Harris estate by night riders on the night of March 14, said that Woodford county, from these acts of incendiarism and lawlessness, had suffered more in her reputation than from all other causes combined during the past twenty-five years, and that she would not recover from the injury sustained within the next twenty-five years.

Judge Stout not only urged a vigorous investigation of the raid of night riders, but told the grand jury to also investigate the sending of armed militia into the county without authority. Judge Stout warned the grand jury to maintain the utmost secrecy in the performance of their duty, and told them that any talking indulged in outside of the jury room would be treated as contempt of court.

Must Indict Night Riders.

Cynthiana, Ky., May 27.—Judge L. P. Fryer yesterday instructed the grand jury to investigate the recent lawlessness in this county, especially night riders coming into this county from Bracken county and turning Marshal Huey's tobacco over in the creek three miles from this city.

Among other instructions he impressed the minds of the grand jurors that their duty as citizens required the returning of indictments against whomsoever they could locate was in the band of night riders, whether their sympathy was with them or not, or whether they took any active part in overturning the tobacco.

There are several outspoken non-equity men on the grand jury, and predictions are that there will be a number of indictments. Four men that have already been arrested have given bond. They are Will Brown, "Dogwood" Kenton, "Gum" Megee (a mulatto) and Charles Fowler. They were all in court this morning with their friends.

FIRE CHIEF WOOD INVITES KENTUCKY CHIEFS TO GO.

Fire Chief James Wood is mailing circular letters to all the fire chiefs of Kentucky inviting them to the meeting of the International Association of Fire Chiefs, which will meet in Columbus, O., August 25-28. Chief Wood is vice president for Kentucky, and he is doing all possible to have Kentucky represented at the meeting as never before. The distance is not far from Kentucky, and his letters will no doubt bring out a good representation. There are but four members of the association in Kentucky. Manufacturers will have exhibits of the latest fire fighting machinery and devices, and the value to a fireman is reckoned in cents. There are 600 fire chief members of the association.

Good for Everybody.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, in the Debert Building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled. 50c. at all druggists.
